British Protectionists Have Started a Crusade.

CHAMBERLAIN IS THE LEADER

DOUBTFUL IF THE POLICY COULD BE MAINTAINED.

author says he never exhibited suckeen interest in any topic.

Crusade For Protection.

In the crusade the colonial secretary is absolutely in harmony with Premier Balfour and harbors no designs on the premiership. It a general election occurred tomorrow and Mr. Chamberlain's programme were carried out, Mr. Balfour would again take the reins of government. The only practical development likely to occur in the near future is a series of political speeches from the leaders on both sides. The opposition is almost solidly opposed to a modification of free trade and will endeavor to arouse that public ferment which was associated with corn tax days. Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Balfour and such unionists as agree with them, will try to extract from the public that degree of support which they may interpret as a popular mandate.

INSURANCE COMPANIES HAVE THE BODY OF YOUNG THAYER EXHUMED

Newton, Mass., May 29.—The grave of Edward M. Thayer, the Newtonville young man who died suddenly early this month while carrying a half-million dollars life insurance, has been opened and the body removed to the cemetery chapel. Medical Examiner Frank W. Draper of Boston removed certain organs, after which the body was reinterred. Officers were posted in the vicinity and only three ofher persons beside the medical examiner and doctors were permitted to go near the grave or chapel. The sentry who has been guarding the cemetery is now pacing up and down as usual. The location of the grave is yet unknown to the many curious persons who have been attracted to the cemetery by the mystery surrounding the case.

Thayer was arrested in Boston last month on the charge of forging deeds of property on which he gave bogus mortgages, securing, it is said, considerable money. A few days after his arrest, bail being accepted, Thayer was found dead tel, Baltimore, Md.

The barber shop in the Carrollton hotel, Baltimore, sterilizes everything it uses in the shop. The sterilizing is done by heat. The towels, the razors, the strops, the soap, the combs and brushes are all sterilized before being used on a customer. Where there is no sterilization, have the barber use Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the dandruff germ, and it is an antiseptic for the scalp, and for the face after shaving. All leading barbers everywhere appreciate these potent facts about Herpicide and they use it. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send flot in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Bad Feeling Intensified by the Arrest

UNREST AT MANILA.

Remarkable Case of a San Juan Girl, Whose Death Has Just Been Announced.

New York. May 29.—Marguerite Boyenval of Thelles, near San Juan, who had been in a cataleptic state since May, 1885, has awakened, cables the Herald's correspondent. For some time past she had suffered from phthisis, and it is believed that the effect of this malady on her system conduced to her reawakening. She moved her hand on Saturday for the first time and groaned slightly. When Dr. Chartre took hold of her arm she said "You are pinching me," and subsequently replied to questions by "yes" and "no." She was, however, in a state of great weakness and gradually sank, dying the day after awakening.

Marguerite Boyenval's lethargy was caused by fright. She had had a child, which died shortly after its birth under circumstances which led to the opening of an investigation. One day in May, 1885, while Marguerite was inoling, and girly and is strongly in sympathy with which died shortly after its birth under circumstances which led to the opening of an investigation. One day in May, 1885, while Marguerite was inoling, and investigation. One day in May, 1885, while Marguerite was inoling, and the pulse beats showed that she was alive. She was sustained by washing her body in milk every day and pouring a few drops of milk or spirits into the sleeper's mouth through a reed.

Many prominent physicians visited the patient during her twenty-year sleep.

COULD BE MAINTAINED.

London, May 22.—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's protectionist policy is the all-prevailing topic of discussion here. His masterful assertion that he would make reciprocal trade between the model of the country and her colonies as the would make reciprocal trade between the model of the country and her colonies as much as did the home the would make reciprocal trade between the model of the country and partial that he government or in the model of the present session of partial rande and of this years are the country on preferential trade and of the present session of partial randers and the colonies as much as did the home the work of the present session of partial randers and the colonies of the scheme point out that the povernment or the present session of partial randers and of the present session of partial randers and the country on preferential trade and of the present session of partial randers and the country and partial randers of the present session of partial randers and the members of the post of the present season of partial randers and the members of the house of common and the members of the house of commons. If the indications show that Mr. Chamberlain's activities at shortly and will depend almost entirely on the result of the proportion of the present season of partial revenue officers of all first the country at his back a general election at the end of this year is extremely proportion. If the indications show that Mr. Chamberlain's second partial revenue officers of all first become and the members of the house of common at the end of this year is extremely proportion of the present season of partial revenue officers of all first become and the members of the house of common at the end of this year is extremely proportion to the present partial probably be a severe strain on himportations of the present partial probably because the proportio

Payne's Statement.

The rolls of the third class postoffices are now under investigation and the authority for the compensation of the employes of every thirdyclass postoffice in the country is being carefully examined. Postmaster General Payne made the following statement regarding the changes announced today:

"In the case of the fourteen offices where the assistant postmaster is paid in excess of 50 per cent of the salary of the postmaster, the action is taken to secure uniformity and better administration. The law provides that in first class postoffices the assistant postmaster's salary shall be not to exceed 50 per cent of the salary of the salary of the postmaster, but this does not apply to assistant postmasters in offices of the second class. It is believed the basis of compensation should be uniform in all offices of the first and second class, hence this order. The total amount saved to the government by this order will be $2,500 a year. In seven offices where there appear to be eight persons who were receiving more than the law allows for the positions which they occupy, there may be some explanation of this fact, but in any event an order has been issued reducing the compensation to the amount authorized by law. In other offices there are persons employed under designations not known to the law. There is no doubt of the activity and the efficiency of these persons and they are properly employed but wrongfully classified on the payrolls, and the postmaster's have been instructed to change their designations to the proper title."

Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, La., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Z. C. M. L.
